

Title	Elective Recovery Approach Support for Manchester Royal Infirmary Lipid Service
Organisations Involved	Manchester University NHS Foundation Trust (MFT) and Amgen Limited
Collaborative Working Project Description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This project is a 12 month task and finish project that will support Manchester Royal Infirmary (MRI) Hospital to deliver a post pandemic recovery plan to reduce the current wait list for Secondary prevention CVD patients with the highest LDL-C levels waiting to be seen by applying the National Elective recovery pathway approach to managing clinic capacity • A new clinical risk-mitigation clinic will be provided by the Lipid team over a 12 month period to enable high-risk secondary prevention CVD patients prioritised Patients to access care faster. • Patients reviewed in this fast track Clinic will have lipid management optimised according to NICE Guideline 238, referencing TA394, TA393, TA385 & TA733 and European Society of Cardiology (ESC) Guidelines.
Expected Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enhanced cardiovascular preventative treatment in high-risk secondary prevention CVD patients. • Reduced time to achievement of cholesterol target for high-risk secondary prevention CVD patients • Reduce waiting time for both new and current caseload high-risk secondary prevention CVD patients

GBR-NP-0225-80004 February 2025